

LEADERSHIP AND MANAGEMENT SKILLS

An Introduction to Teams

OBJECTIVES

Every individual wants to form part of a winning team, however when dealing with various individuals, it can at times prove to be a difficult task to align everyone to corporate goals. This means that managers need to have vision and be able to communicate it effectively to the whole team. This workshop will help participants understand how teams work and develop over time as well as identify a number of ways of how they can build a high-performing team.

WORKSHOP CONTENT

- Different Types of Teams
- Team Norms
- Different Roles Within a Team
- How Teams Develop Over Time (Tuckman)
- The 5 Dysfunctions of a Team (Lencioni)

TARGET AUDIENCE

Team leaders and supervisors and anyone new to leadership

DURATION

Full day (8 hours)