

LEADERSHIP AND MANAGEMENT SKILLS

Motivating your Team for Peak Performance

OBJECTIVES

The job of a manager is to attain results through team effort. However, at times employees are not productive enough and this could be a result of their lack of motivation. Telling your employees to be more productive is not enough. Providing them with the right motivation is key to reach the team objectives. This course looks at various aspects of motivation and will provide managers with the right tools to ensure a positive work environment that will enable them to bring out the best of their employees.
